We need your help. Over the years the Bulldogs lore has been handed down, not handed down, passed around, lost, remembered, forgotten... everything; and now, we'd like to get it all back together and look after it for the future.

If you were part of the GB Bulldogs or happen to know or possess any information, stories, images, videos, whatever that might be of interest to us, please could you contact the webmaster (webmaster@gbbulldogs.org) and see how you can contribute to rebuilding the lost history.
